Politicologenetmaal 2016

On Thursday June 2 and Friday June 3 2016 the 'Politicologenetmaal' ('24-hour Political Science Conference') is again jointly organised by the Association for Political Science (VPW) and the Dutch Political Science Association (NKWP). This year the conference is organized by the Political Science Department of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel.

As always, the Etmaal will start on Thursday around lunch time and will close on Friday at approximately the same time. There will be 16 workshops. Their activities take place over the two days, with two sessions on Thursday afternoon and two sessions on Friday morning.

Registration

Participants who present a paper have to register and pay their registration fees before 20 May 2016.

It is also possible to participate in the Etmaal without presenting a paper. Should you be interested in one of the sessions but do not wish to present a paper you do not need to contact the workshop conveners. You can access the registration template via the conference website (<http://www.politicologenetmaal.eu/register>).

For more information: www.politicologenetmaal.eu. Feel free to contact the organising committee at any time: Etmaal2016@vub.ac.be.

Registration fees:

Members of VPW or NKWP
Full conference (incl. dinner)	125 €
Only Thursday (incl. dinner)	100 €
Only Friday	50 €
Non-members
Full conference (incl. dinner)	175 €
Only Thursday (incl. dinner)	125 €
Only Friday	75 €
Students
Full conference (incl. dinner)	87 €
Only Thursday (incl. dinner)	62 €
Only Friday	37 €

Members of the Dutch and Belgian associations of Political Science receive a significant discount. You can apply for membership of the Dutch Political Science association or the Belgian Political Science association via the associations' websites.

The fee includes a participants' map, coffee/tea breaks, lunch on Thursday and Friday, and reception and dinner on Friday. Via the registration template, participants can inform the organizing committee on their dietary requests. For special needs assistance, please contact the organizing committee directly via: Etmaal2016@vub.ac.be.

When you fill out the registration template, you will be asked to complete your payment via an online portal (credit and debit card). Participants have to register and pay their registration fees before 20 May 2016.

Accommodation

Accommodation is not included in the registration fee.

Brussels has plenty of good hotels on offer. Because the plenary lecture will take place in the city centre (see infra), we recommend you to book a hotel close to BOZAR, the Centre of Fine Arts, the venue of the plenary session. BOZAR is located in close proximity to the central railway station.

A non-exhaustive list of hotels close to BOZAR is available here.

Location

The Politicologenetmaal will take place at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel. All workshops will take place in Building D of the VUB campus Etterbeek. On-site registration, lunches and coffee/tea breaks will all take place in Building D. Throughout the conference, Palgrave will organise a book stand in Building D.

The plenary session, award ceremony, reception and dinner on Thursday evening will take place in the city centre at BOZAR, the Centre of Fine Arts.

Directions to BOZAR: BOZAR is conveniently located in close proximity to the central railway station in Brussels. Google Maps location and directions can be found here. The address is: Ravensteinstraat 23—1000 Brussels.

Directions to VUB: The VUB campus Etterbeek is easily accesible by car and public transport; also from the city centre. Participant will receive a barcode; allowing them to access the VUB parking. This barcode will be emailed to participants in the week before the conference.

A 3D-map of the VUB campus, allowing you to locate Building D, can be found here.

A guide with more detailed directions may be found here.

The address of the VUB campus Etterbeek is: Pleinlaan 2 –1050 Brussels.

Programme

The main academic work is conducted in thematic workshops that run throughout four sessions. Two of these sessions take place on Thursday afternoon. On Thursday evening, the plenary session will take place at BOZAR, the Centre for Fine Arts.

Professor Joni Lovenduski will give the plenary lecture 'Does feminism need political science?'. Joni Lovenduski is Anniversary Professor of Politics at Birkbeck College, University of London. She has received numerous distinctions for her academic work. In 2007 she won the Political Studies Association Special Recognition Award for her contribution to political studies. In 2009 she won the Gender and Politics Award of the ECPR Standing Group on Gender and Politics. In 2013 she received the UK Political Studies Association's Sir Isaiah Berlin prize for lifetime achievement in political studies. In 2014, politics and gender scholars paid tribute to her groundbreaking work with the edited volume 'Deeds and Words: Gendering Politics after Joni Lovenduski' (edited by Rosie Campbell and Sarah Childs, ECPR Press).

The lecture will be followed by the award ceremony, reception and dinner. Each year, the Dutch and Belgian associations jointly extend an award to the best master dissertation in Political Science (the Daniël Heinsius award) and the best PhD dissertation in Political Science (the 'Jaarprijs Politicologie'). The Belgian association of Political Science will also honour some of its senior members with a lifetime achievement in Political Studies. On Friday morning, the workshops resume and the Politicologenetmaal closes with lunch.
